The Company is also committed to promoting a work environment that is conducive to the professional growth of its employees and encourages equality of opportunity.

The Company will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment and is committed to take all necessary steps to ensure that its employees are not subjected to any form of harassment on the basis of their gender.

The Policy for Prevention of Sexual Harassment was re-constituted by the Board of Directors at the meeting held on 06.09.2025 in compliance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013

B. Scope

1. This policy applies to all categories of employees of the Company, including permanent employees, temporary employees, trainees and employees on contract at their workplace or at client sites and any person responsible for the management, supervision and control of the workplace. The Company will not tolerate sexual harassment, if engaged in, by any employee or co-worker of the Company, its clients or by suppliers or any other business associates.
2. The workplace includes:

C. Definition of sexual harassment:

1. “Sexual harassment” may be one or a series of incidents involving unsolicited and unwelcomed sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, or any other verbal or physical conduct of sexual nature.
2. “Sexual Harassment” would mean and include any of the following:
  - a) Unwelcome sexual advances, requests or demand for sexual favours, either explicitly or implicitly, in return for employment, promotion, examination or evaluation of a person towards any company activity;
  - b) Unwelcome sexual advances involving verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct such as sexually colored remarks, jokes, letters, phone calls-mail, gestures, showing of pornography, lurid stares, physical contact or molestation, stalking, sounds, display of pictures, signs, verbal or non-verbal communication which offends the individual’s sensibilities and affect her/his performance;
  - c) Eve teasing, innuendos and taunts, physical confinement against one’s will and likely to intrude upon one’s privacy, Persistent watching, following, contacting of a person;
  - d) Act or conduct by a person in authority which creates the environment at workplace hostile or intimidating to a person belonging to the other sex;
  - e) Conduct of such an act at work place or outside in relation to an Employee of the company, or vice versa during the course of employment; and
  - f) Any unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal gesture by an employee having sexual overtones.

Sexual harassment is emotionally abusive and creates an unhealthy, unproductive atmosphere at the workplace. Sexual harassment cases can be classified into two categories - quid pro quo and creation of a hostile working environment.

1) Under the quid pro quo (meaning this for that) form of harassment, a person or authority, usually the superior of the victim, demands sexual favors for getting or keeping a job benefit and threatens to fire the employee if the conditions are not met.

2) A hostile work environment arises when a co-worker or supervisor creates a work environment through verbal or physical conduct that interferes with another co-worker's job performance or creates the workplace atmosphere which is intimidating, hostile, offensive or humiliating and experienced as an attack on personal dignity. For example, an employee tells offensive jokes. No person shall indulge or caused to be indulged under instructions from superior in sexual harassment of co-workers.

However, an employee who is sexually harassed can complain about the same even if there is no adverse job consequence..
